ANTSHE is an organization that supports non-traditional students seeking to advance in their professional careers through furthering their college education. ANTSHE strives to attract student members to help them further their transition to receive an education by providing them with a support network, resources, and scholarship opportunities. ANTSHE provides support to academic professionals and institutions that support nontraditional students by providing professional development, publishing, and networking opportunities with an elite community of other academic professionals, and much more. Non-traditional students can become a member of ANTSHE in a variety of ways, which makes the organization beneficial for any non-traditional student. ANTSHE is continuing to grow and continue to assist their members any way they can, listening to comments and suggestions and adjusting their services accordingly. ANTSHE believes that it is never too late to get an education, and they will be there to support their members along the way.
